會後心得

From the WC activities, I found that there was relatively little in-depth content related to pharmaceutical knowledge. Most of the information was more about general public health or some basic concepts related to medicine. Although these concepts were rather superficial, they helped me to broaden my horizon, which is still a good thing. Nevertheless, I found that the other WC activities were extremely interesting. In spite of some games from Korea, Taekwondo, or wandering the local Korean streets and historical sites, they all helped us get to know Korea better. In addition, the international exchanges were invaluable. Being able to interact with people from various countries, understand their cultures and characteristics, and make friends from different countries were very meaningful. In brief, I am grateful to WC for helping me grow and providing many unforgettable memories to me. I hope we meet again if fate allows!

特色活動 / 最有印象的活動

1.Auction night:

This is my first time to take part in an auction event. I found that it was very interesting and fun to see so many people willing to spend a lot of money and compete with each other to acquire small special items from different countries. The whole scene of competition was really captivating!

2.International Night:

I think the best part of International Night is seeing people from different countries dressed in their traditional costumes and being able to visit each country's booth to taste their unique foods, drinks, and alcohol. A lot of people end up getting drunk from drinking too much that night!

給未來參加者的建議

1.Remember to bring some snacks or presents from Taiwan.

2.Remember to bring a laptop or tablet in order to use in some workshops and symposiums.

3.Enjoy everything in WC!

其他

PCT(Post Congress Tour):

I consider that if people want to spend less money with a view to continuing to travel in a certain country, PCT can be a good alternative. However, a downside is that you need to follow the PCT's schedule and can't go wherever you want to go. Additionally, sharing a hotel room with others might be a problem; for example, I personally have a hard time sharing a bed with people who I'm not very familiar with, and differing habits can also affect each other. If your budget allows, I recommend that you should travel with your close friends to the places which you want to go. As for me, it would be more comfortable and enjoyable.
